SHGC celebrates International World Health Day with a Focus on Holistic Wellness

Bhopal, April 7, 2025 – In observance of International World Health Day, Sant Hirdaram Girls' College, Bhopal, organized a vibrant and insightful celebration under the joint aegis of NCC, NSS, IIC, and E-Cell. The event was held with the aim of spreading awareness about the importance of a healthy lifestyle and promoting overall well-being among students and faculty.

The highlight of the celebration was an enlightening lecture on "Healthy Eating for Best Health" delivered by Dr. Vibha Khare, Head of the Food and Nutrition Department. Dr. Khare emphasized the critical role of balanced nutrition in maintaining physical and mental health and provided practical tips on mindful eating and dietary habits for students.

To complement the theme of wellness, the day also featured an invigorating Yoga session, followed by a guided Meditation practice. These sessions focused on reducing stress, improving concentration, and promoting inner peace, resonating with the spirit of World Health Day which this year centers around "My Health, My Right."

The celebration witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, volunteers, and faculty members, reflecting the college's continued commitment to fostering a culture of health and wellness on campus.

Principal Dr. Dalima Parwani applauded the efforts of all organizing units and reiterated the importance of integrating health-conscious practices into daily life, especially for youth who are the foundation of a healthy nation.

The event in-charge, Dr. Shanti Sharma, expressed her gratitude to all the students and teachers.

Sant Hirdaram Girls' College remains dedicated to empowering young women through quality education, holistic development and socially impactful initiatives.

SHGC celebrates Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Jayanti with “Shiksha aur Samanta” Program

Sant Hirdaram Girls College marked the birth anniversary of Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar with a vibrant and thoughtful celebration on Monday, April 14, 2025. The event, themed “Shiksha aur Samanta” (Education and Equality), paid homage to the social reformer and chief architect of the Indian Constitution.

The program was conducted in the Seminar Hall of the college in accordance with a directive received from the Department of Higher Education on April 13, 2025. The celebration included essay and debate competitions, drawing active participation from over 50 students, who shared insightful perspectives on education and equality—ideals championed by Dr. Ambedkar throughout his life. The competitions were judged by Ms. Akansha Arora, Head of the Commerce Department, and Prof. Geetanshi Buttan, Assistant Professor of English. Their fair evaluation and guidance made the event intellectually enriching for all involved.

Principal Dr. Dalima Parwani graced the occasion and addressed the gathering with words of inspiration. She emphasized the importance of Dr. Ambedkar’s teachings in today’s world and encouraged students to carry forward his legacy. Dr. Parwani also expressed her heartfelt appreciation for the organizing committee, which included Dr. Shanti Sharma (NCC Officer), Ms. Sonia Sharma (IIC & E-Cell), and Dr. Vibha Khare (NSS Officer), commending them for their dedicated efforts in ensuring the success of the event.

The celebration served not only as a tribute to a great leader but also as a reminder to the youth of the transformative power of education, equality, and social justice.
